Tucson, AZ 85709

Dear Ms. Vizard .

On behalf of the National Certification Board for Therapeutic Massage & Bodywork (NCBTMB) . thank you for submitting the School Status Code Request Form with supporting documentation. NCBTMB has concluded its review of your request and has confirmed that Pima Community College has met the requirements to become an NCBTMB Assigned School, and is considered to be a school in good standing until the following date of 07/19/2017 .

To ensure that your Assigned School Code stays active, you will need to submit the proper renewal information (i.e. state licensure, accreditation, exemption clause) within 30 days of the expiration date.

Your NCBTMB Assigned School Code is 490834 . Please provide all graduates this identification number for inclusion on their application when applying for the National Certification Exam (NCE) .

Please note that NCBTMB does not approve any school's program of study or curriculum training and that a school code assignment does not constitute accreditation, endorsement or approval.

As an NCB1MB Assigned School it is the responsibility of the assigned school to keep all information current. Changes to information and documentation provided with your School Status Code Request Form, should be reported with proper documentation within 30 days of the implemented modifications. This includes, but is not limited to, changes to curriculum, school ownership, contact information, and licensing status. NCBTMB reserves the right to temporarily suspend the Assigned School Code and render the school's graduates ineligible for national certification should NCBTMB determine that a school has not met its obligation to inform NCBTMB of any changes. NCBTMB retains the right to revoke or suspend the Assigned School Code as it deems necessary in order to protect its certification program.

Changes should be mailed to the following address:

National Certification Board for Therapeutic Massage & Bodywork c/o School Outreach
