Selective Admissions Point Rubric (CAP, LPN-AAS, CEP)

Accuplacer Reading Assessment Score (10 points): Scores of less than 250 are not comparable to college-level reading. This does not mean you need to retake the exam if you score below 250, however, students should be encouraged to attend booster camps, complete EdReady remediation, or take college-level reading courses to increase their reading skills and ensure you are more successful in the program.

Preparatory Courses (maximum 36 points): Must be on a Pima transcript at the time of application with final grade conferred. Assessment into MAT189 or higher will result in eight points. Accomplishing the successful credit-granting score on the College Composition Exam (CLEP) for writing will result in eight points. No points will be awarded for achieving the minimum grade.

MAT142 or higher with a "C" or greater	A = 8 points; B = 6 points; C = 0 points
