PCC Releases Truth in Taxation Information

May 20, 2016

Tucson, AZ – Pima County Community College District has released its Truth in Taxation information for the fiscal year 2016-2017 budget, in compliance with Arizona Revised Statute 15-1461.01.

According to the Truth in Taxation information, the College is proposing an increase in primary tax revenues of $1,063,071, an increase of 1.0 percent over fiscal year 2015-2016, as allowed by state law. The proposed fiscal year 2017 combined property tax rate of $1.3733 per $100 of assessed value will cause Pima County Community College District's primary property taxes on a $100,000 home to increase from $135.97 (total taxes that would be owed without the proposed tax increase) to $137.33 (total proposed taxes including the tax increase). Details concerning the impact of this proposal, as compared to not increasing taxes, are listed in the Truth in Taxation notice published in the Arizona Daily Star on May 23 and May 31, 2016. The College's secondary tax rate is proposed to continue at zero as the College has no outstanding general obligation debt.

The College's publicly elected five-member Board of Governors will hold a public hearing on the proposed fiscal year 2016-2017 budget, property tax rates and levies on Wednesday, June 8, 2016. The public hearing will begin at 5:00 p.m. in the College's Community/Board Room at the District Office, 4905 E. Broadway Blvd. Review the College's proposed fiscal year 2017 Budget.

A Special Meeting to vote on fiscal year 2016-2017 budget, property tax rates, and levies, follows the public hearing. During the Special Meeting, the Governing Board will consider a motion to levy the increased property tax by a roll call vote. Any increase would take effect on July 1, 2016.

The Board's Regular Meeting for June is scheduled to begin at 5:30 p.m. Board of Governors' meetings are open to the public and can be viewed live through the PCC website.
