TIMELY WARNING

10/13/2015

Unknown White male

Last seen wearing a black t-shirt and carrying a “hunting” rifle in the area of West campus on 10/12/15

On 10/12/15, around 11:00 a.m. a student was driving to the West Campus and noticed a white male in the area of La Cholla and Anklam (Southeast desert area of campus). The male appeared to crouch down behind an electrical pole where the witness reported seeing the butt-stock of a rifle resting across his knees. The rifle was described as a “hunting” style rifle. Pima Community College Police and Tucson Police responded to the area. A check of the campus and surrounding desert area did not locate the suspicious individual.

How to Protect Yourself:

- Immediately report any suspicious activity by calling 911.
- Pay attention to your surroundings and move away from danger.
- Create barriers between you and the threat if you cannot get out of the area.
- Be prepared to defend yourself, be aggressive and commit to your actions if this is your only option.
