On Monday at approximately 9:50am, a female PCC student reported that while driving to NW Campus, an Hispanic male, short hair, facial stubble, mid 30's, and wearing an orange construction vest, exposed himself to her while in his vehicle at a stop light. The suspect followed the victim to NW Campus in a silver and beige four door sedan. When the victim got out of her parked vehicle, the suspect attempted to approach and speak to her. The victim yelled loudly and the suspect returned to his vehicle and drove off campus.

Students, faculty, staff & visitors are encouraged to be on the lookout for this individual or any suspicious behavior. Please notify Campus Police by dialing (520) 206-2700.

How to Protect Yourself: Be aware of your surroundings and suspicious behaviors of others. If you are being followed, head quickly to a lighted area or to a group of people; avoid places where you are vulnerable and there are no exits. When walking: Avoid shortcuts; walk where there is plenty of light and traffic; never walk alone at night unless absolutely necessary; report any suspicious activity or misconduct to campus police; Give your car the "once over" before entering with a critical eye for possible break-ins or persons in the rear seat or floor area.
