Welcome to El Pueblo Liberty

Developing Our Community Through Learning
El Pueblo Liberty

- One of three Adult Education learning centers in Pima Community College Adult Education – serving Tucson since 1969
- First building in the nation to be built just for Adult Education
- Integral part of El Pueblo Regional Neighborhood Center
- Offering classes 6 days a week, with morning, afternoon and evening classes available
- Programs made possible through support from federal, state, county, city, and college funding.

Developing Our Community Through Learning
El Pueblo Liberty

Developing Our Community Through Learning
El Pueblo Liberty

- Adult Education Classes
  - Adult Basic Education and High School Equivalency
  - English Language Acquisition for Adults
  - Rights and Responsibilities of Citizenship
  - Civics and Student Leadership Development
  - Community Classes

- Family Literacy Program

- AmeriCorps Program

Developing Our Community Through Learning
Family Literacy Program

“Teach the Parent, Reach the Child, Change the Future”

Serving Tucson families since 1991

Five Components:

- Adult Education – High School Equivalency & English Classes
- Parenting Education
- Parent and Child Together (PACT) Time
- Service Learning – Leadership Development & Volunteering
- Children’s Education

Developing Our Community Through Learning
AmeriCorps

Developing Our Community Through Learning
Since 1994, we have engaged 169 AmeriCorps members:

- 96 have been current or former students
- 22 others have been children or family members of former students
- These members served more than 350,000 hours
- Currently, 17 AmeriCorps members are serving in Family Literacy and Adult Education centers

Developing Our Community Through Learning
Recognition

- In 2011, the Pima Adult and Family Literacy Corps was recognized by AmeriCorps as one of the most innovative AmeriCorps programs in the United States.

- In 2008, the Pima Family Literacy program was selected by the National Center for Family Literacy to receive the Verizon Tech Savvy Award.
So far this fiscal year at EPL:

- 1200 students
- 12,000 hours of volunteer service
- 63% of all students have made an educational gain of at least 2.5 grade levels
- Represented Adult Education and Family Literacy at a variety of local literacy events
Community Connections

- City of Tucson
- Sunnyside Literacy Zone
- Women’s Literacy Network
- SUSD
- Literacy Connects
- San Miguel High School
- Child Parent Centers Inc. – Head Start
- Sunnyside Neighborhood Association
- Pima County Public Library
- TUSD
- First Things First – Coordination of Services
- United Way of Southern Arizona
- Workforce Investment Board – Youth

Developing Our Community Through Learning
El Pueblo Liberty Adult Learning Center

Developing Our Community Through Learning