

April 30, 2020

Dear Pima student,

May begins tomorrow. We are optimistic that it will be better than April, and offer information and resources to help you succeed in the coming weeks and months.

Opening of Fall registration moved to May 25

The College is retooling many of its classes to fit into eight-week and in-class/web hybrid formats to provide you with flexible learning options.

We need a little more time to make adjustments, and have moved the start of Fall registration to May 25, from May 4. We will keep you posted on details as they emerge. Thank you for your patience.

Virtual Town Hall is May 1, 3-5 pm

The Student Senate's Virtual Town Hall is Friday from 3-5 p.m. At the Town Hall, you will hear from Pima administrators and your student senators about a variety of topics of interest to students.

Dr. Durán-Cerda here: I'd like to close by offering the Spanish and English lyrics of "Gracias por la vida" ("Thanks be to life"), a beautiful song by the Chilean poet-singer-songwriter Violeta Parra. (Here is a rendition by Mercedes Sosa and Joan Baez.) May you find comfort in your song.

With gratitude,

Dr. Dolores Durán-Cerda,
Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor
