February 2013
Board of Governors

PCC Prep Academy
PCC Prep Academy

Overview

- Who are we serving
- What are we doing
- When we provide services
- Where do students meet
- Why we do what we do
- How students meet their goals
- Our Outcomes
PCC Prep Academy

Who are we serving

- New to Higher Education
- Returning to Pima after more than 3 years
- Currently enrolled and faculty referred
What are we doing

- Over 10,000 e-mails sent
- 1,300 direct mails
- Phone calls

Participation
- 3,000 Direct Instruction
- 1,400 Orientations
- Tutoring

- 1,250 Registered Students
- 124 Re-Registering
PCC Prep Academy

When

Reading – “The Reading Café”

- Students join Mon-Thur. at 9 a.m.
  - Many stay until 12:30 p.m. working
- Learning to read in a “À la carte” method
- Enjoying, sharing, and developing skills
- Learning to use the Library – partnership
- Building comprehension and verbal skills
PCC Prep Academy

- When (Tu/Th 10:45am CC; or 5:45pm EC)
- 10 Week Math Learning Community
  - Groups of 5 to 7 students
  - Lesson Plans include:
    - Vocabulary
    - Pearson product
    - Additional online videos to enhance subject understanding
    - Practice
    - Individual-work in a group environment
PCC Prep Academy

Where we provide instruction services

- Learning Resource Centers
- Libraries
- Computer Commons
- Classrooms
Why we do what we do

- Meeting students where they are
Why we do what we do

- Meeting students where they are
- Developing the fundamentals to provide the transitioning to college-level courses
Why we do what we do

- Meeting students where they are
- Developing the fundamentals to provide the transitioning to college-level courses
- Facilitation, setting goals, commitment, encouragement
Why we do what we do

- Meeting students where they are
- Developing the fundamentals to provide the transitioning to college-level courses
- Facilitation, setting goals, commitment, encouragement
- Identifying student learning styles and changing approaches to processing information
Why we do what we do

- Meeting students where they are
- Developing the fundamentals to provide the transitioning to college-level courses
- Facilitation, setting goals, commitment, encouragement
- Identifying student learning styles and changing approaches to processing information
- Life long skills
PCC Prep Academy

- Why we do what we do
  - Meeting students where they are
  - Developing the fundamentals to provide the transitioning to college-level courses
  - Facilitation, setting goals, commitment, encouragement
  - Identifying student learning styles and changing approaches to processing information
  - Life long skills
  - Reaching out and engaging our community
How students meet their goals

- Better prepared students demonstrating more accurate placement
- Students utilizing all PCC resources available
- Confidence building – “I Can”
- Technology and Study skills building
- MyPima
Our outcomes

- Reading: 22 students
  - REA 081 – 12 (55%)
  - REA 091 - 7 (32%)
  - REA 112 - 2 (9%)
  - Meets all (Honors) – 1 (5%)
Our outcomes

- Writing: 87 students
  - WRT 100 – 60 (69%)
  - WRT 101 - 27 (31%)
PCC Prep Academy

- Our outcomes
  - Mathematics 61 students
    - MAT 086 – 12 (20%)
    - MAT 092 – 45 (74%)
    - MAT 122 – 4 (6%)