All College Day Update
August 17, 2012
Dr. Suzanne L. Miles

We all have days like this at work. [Image of a dog attempting to drink from a powerful sprinkler. Water spraying everywhere]

But remember that what we do every day at PCC improves the community in so many ways. Here are a few highlights from the past school year:

Grants
- $6.3 million to advance Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics education
- $5.24 million to help low-income, first-generation students prepare for and succeed in college

New opportunities for students
- Emergency Medical Technical training facility
- Veterans Center
- Additional GED testing sites
- 727 donated to Aviation Technology Center
- Expansion of transfer agreement with ASU

Awards and honors
- National Award of Excellence from Association of Physical Plant Administrators for facilities management
- Governor’s Heritage Preservation Honor Award for partnering with Tucson Historic Preservation Foundation to bring neon signs to Downtown Campus

Reaccreditations received
- Dental Assisting Education
- Dental Hygiene Education
- Dental Laboratory Technology
- EMT-Paramedic

Last but not least
- 3,624 graduates in May 2012 – a record for PCC!

Coming up in 2012-13:

Web Time Entry (WTE)
- WTE is our new system for automating time and leave accounting
