PimaCommunityCollege

How to Read the Online Schedule of Classes

Sort by clicking on one of the underlined column headers.

Click here for a course description and information about prerequisites.

Click here for detailed information about this CRN, including the location address.

MAT 092 - Elementary Algebra

Status	Crn	Subj	Crs#	Cred	Meeting time [MTWThFSSu]		Location	Cap	Rem	Date	Alt.Mth	Instructor	Wks	App	Fee
Open	10743	MAT	092	3.00	MW	07:40am-08:55am	Downtown Campus ST215	35	33	08/26-12/20		Holmberg	16
Open	10044	MAT	092	3.00	Open		Online	30	25	08/26-12/20	Taught online	Meehan	16

Click on an Alt.Mth type for a description of the course delivery method. If blank, the method is a traditional lecture-style class.

Status: The course status. The options are:
- Open – available for registration
- Closed – the maximum number of seats is already filled
- Restricted – usually limited to a specific population
- Cancelled – no longer offered
- In Progress – the course has already begun

CRN: The Course Reference Number (also known as Section). This is the unique number for each course used when registering for classes.

Subj: The course subject, identified with a three letter prefix.

Crs#: The course number, indentified with three numbers. It may also have a one or two letter suffix.

Cred: The number of credits for the course. This is also sometimes referred to as units or hours.

Meeting time: The days and times that the class meets. Some class meeting times are listed as TBA (To Be Arranged). Contact the campus or department for more information.

Location: The campus, building and room number of the course. Locations of each campus can be found at www.pima.edu/maps. The address of other sites can be found by clicking on the CRN number in the online schedule. For some non-campus sites, you will learn the building and room number for the first class meeting when you arrive at the site.

Cap: The maximum number of students allowed to enroll in the class.

Rem: The number of seats remaining in the class.

Date: The dates the class will begin and end. Not all classes meet for the full 16-week semester.

Alt. Mth: The format of the course will be indicated in this column only if it is not a traditional, lecture-style course. Alternative formats are:
- Enhanced Computer: The course is offered in a computer lab style classroom.
- Taught Online: The course is taught completely online.
- Self Paced on Campus: You work on campus throughout the week in a room designated on the schedule at your own pace with faculty guidance. Students must meet with the faculty in the room defined during the first week.
- Express format: Attend class one night a week, year round, and earn an associate's degree in two years. More information can be found at www.pima.edu/courses/altstyleclass/expressdegree.
- Web and classroom: You receive instruction in the classroom and on the web with reduced classroom time. This is also sometimes call "hybrid."
- Honors Content: This course may be taken for honors credit, with additional work expected of you beyond regular course requirements (see instructor).
- Open Entry / Open Exit: You enroll at any time during the semester and complete required work at your own pace within the semester or by arrangement with the instructor.
- Self Paced Indep.: You work off-campus at your own pace with study materials prepared by College faculty. You must meet with the faculty for the initial class meeting at the time and room defined.

Instructor: The instructor's name will be here if he/she has been selected. "Staff" indicates that the instructor has yet to be selected for the course.

Wks: The number of weeks the course will run. A typical course is 16 weeks, but Pima also offers 5, 8, 10 and 14 week courses.

App: Some classes require advisor or instructor approval before students can register. "A" indicates that advisor approval is required. "F" indicates that faculty approval is required.

Fee: Some classes have additional fees. The amount will be indicated in this column.